

This course will help you gain an awareness of what distracts you from defining and realizing your ultimate success, and in particular focuses on the three key contributors to success; career, family and life.

Register Online:
[http://missioncollege.org/
community/comm_ed/
register.html](http://missioncollege.org/community/comm_ed/register.html)

or call:
408-855-5112

Saturday
November 18, 2006
10-1 PM
Mission College
Room MT-B
Class Fee: $40.00

Mission College
Community Education

3000 Mission College Blvd.
Room S1-202. Mail Stop 13
Santa Clara, CA 95054

[http://www.missioncollege.org/
community/comm_ed/
index.php](http://www.missioncollege.org/community/comm_ed/index.php)

E-mail:
[mc_comm_ed@wvmccd.
cc.ca.us](mailto:mc_comm_ed@wvmccd.cc.ca.us)

Mission College Community Education

Personal Pilot 2007

A Resource for a Successful Life

By Jeffrey Artz

- Create your platform for success
- Become aware of clutter and distractions in your life
- Engage in a process of reflection and identify focus factors:
Career Compatibility & Alternate Career Paths
- Consider Your Current Perception of Family and Community Life Investment
- Develop Commitments to Change and Growth Start to pilot
your own airplane!

Jeffrey Artz is a Certified Life Coach and Professional Speaker offering life and career transition coaching based on the development of one's personal foundation. Jeffrey values life change and has used change to find his life passion. He draws on his life experiences and coach training in working with others to develop and implement strategies to make their transitions successful.

